A CERTAIN CURE
FOR THE RHEUMATISM.

POLYANDRIA,
OR,
The essential OIL of the Cajiput Tree.
A MEDICINE

UNIVERSALLY esteemed among the East Indians, as a safe and certain cure for the Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Epilepsey, &c. restoring vigor after laxations and sprains, giving relief in pains of the head and neck, toothache, &c. and since it has been introduced into England, (which is of very late date) has been highly recommended, by some of the most eminent physicians in London, as the best and most effectual remedy for the Gout as well as the Rheumatism, by dissolving the Coagulated Lymph, of which these diseases are formed. In wounded tendons it is of the greatest use by preventing the juice which oozes out of them from fixing. Bruizes and sprains it infallibly cures, for it keeps the extravasated Lymph and blood perfectly dissolved, and prevents their fixing in the interstices of the vessels, till nature either takes them up by the refluent blood, or expels them through the pores of the skin.

Long contracted sprains are removed by it, and it is of the utmost service for the cramp and numbness, stiffness or weakness of the joints. It is a most efficacious remedy for burns and scalds, extracting the fire very soon, and if used immediately, will entirely prevent them from blistering. It is excellent for a fresh cut. It is of infinite use for the sting of wasps, &c. bite of rattlesnakes, gnats and other venomous animals and insects.

The above Valuable Medicine, has been but lately introduced into Europe and America in consequence of the Tree from which it is produced, yielding its essential Oil, but in small quantities, and this chiefly monopolized by the government, owing to the great virtue it was found to possess, in the cure of Rheumatisms, &c. the proprietor has divided the original packages, and put it up in smaller bottles made for the purpose, with directions round each bottle, signed in his own hand writing—and in order to demonstrate its vast importance, has tho't proper to submit for public inspection, the following out of the numerous cures, which by this valuable MEDICINE, has been performed since its general use in this country.

Letter from Mr. JAS. WOODMAN, near Norfolk, to Mr. C. MULLIN.

JULY 28, 1813.

DEAR SIR—My son has been more than 8 years afflicted with a Rheumatic Complaint. The excessive pain he constantly endured, reduced him to a mere skeleton; and from extreme weakness occasioned even the joints of his legs to turn out of their sockets. A very eminent physician at Norwich, whom I consulted, informed me nothing could be done for him, and the faculty in general considered him beyond the reach of medicine. He remained in this desperate situation, till the 19th Oct. last, when I was advised to try your Essential Oil of the Cajiput Tree. Accordingly by persevering in the use of it, his joints are returned to their proper places, and he is now able to walk 10 miles with the greatest ease. Upwards of 50 respectable persons in this town have been at my house to see my son, all who knew him, tho't it impossible he ever could recover.

I am, dear sir,
Your greatly obliged friend,
JAMES WOODMAN.

Broomsgrove, Jan. 4, 1814.

SIR—I have been violently afflicted with a Rheumatic Complaint; even my fingers were so contracted, that I could neither dress nor undress myself, or give the least assistance to my family.

I have only used one bottle of the Essential Oil of the Cajiput Tree, and by it I am perfectly restored.

Yours, &c.
E. HOUGHTON.

December 20, 1810.

SIR—A severe stroke of the palsy, six months ago, deprived me of my speech and the use of one side. In this desperate situation, the Oil of the Cajiput Tree was strongly recommended, and I thank God, as successfully applied. By perseverance in its use a short time, I was completely restored and continue to enjoy the full and perfect use of my faculties, altho' near 80 years of age.

Yours, &c.
W. FRANCIS.

No. 14, Arabello-Row, Pimlico.

☞ MR. FRANCIS has held a publick situation at the Guildhall of the city of Westminster, many years, and is well known to the generality of the respectable inhabitants.

Witherslach, near Kental, Jan. 13, 1813.

SIR—I beg leave to inform you I have been several months past afflicted with such violent pains in my hips, thighs and legs, and swelling of my joints, that I could not rest day or night; nothing that was applied gave me any relief, till a neighbor informed me of the Oil of the Cajiput Tree having performed many surprising cures, sent for a bottle to Mr. Mullin, which gave wonderful relief, and by repeating the same 2 or 3 times, I am perfectly cured, and am as well as ever I was in my life.

This I have publicly given under my hand, for the good of all sufferers in like circumstances.

EXPOSE

Of the SECRETARY of the TREASURY of the United States, on a National Bank, Treasury Notes, and Public Credit.

This official paper should be read by every citizen, in order to form a correct judgment whether the statesmen, who have brought the country into this deplorable situation, are capable, honest, and faithful to the constitution.

Treasury Department, Nov. 28, 1814.

SIR—I have the honor to acknowleged the receipt of your letter, requesting, for a committee of the House of Representatives, an opinion upon the following enquiries.

1. The effects which a considerable issue of treasury notes, with the quality of being receivable in subscriptions to a national bank, will have upon the credit of the government; and particularly upon the prospects of a loan for 1815?

2. The practicability of getting 44 millions of treasury notes (forming, with 6 millions of specie, the capital for a national bank) into circulation without depreciation?

The enquiries of the committee cannot be satisfactorily answered in the abstract, but considered in connection with the state of our finances and the state of the public credit.

When I arrived at Washington, the treasury was suffering under every kind of embarrassment. The demands upon it were great in amount; while the means to satisfy them, were comparatively, small; precarious in the collection, and difficult in the application. The demands consisted of dividends upon old and new funded debt; of treasury notes, and of legislative appropriations for the army, the navy, and the current service—all urgent and important. The means consisted, 1st, of the fragment of an authority to borrow money, when nobody was disposed to lend, and to issue treasury notes, which none but necessitous creditors, or contractors in distress, or commissaries, quarter masters and navy agents, acting, as it were officially, seemed willing to accept! 2d, of the amount of bank credits scattered through the U. States, and principally in the southern and western banks, which had been rendered, in a great degree, useless, by the stoppage of payments in specie, and the consequent impracticability of transfering the public funds from one place, to meet the public engagements in another place. And 3d, of the current supply of money from the import; from internal duties, and from the sales of public lands which ceased to be a foundation of any rational estimate of revenue, to provide even for the funded debt where it was found, that the treasury notes (only requiring, indeed, a cash payment at the distance of a year) to whomsoever they were issued at the treasury, and almost as soon as they were issued, reached the hands of the collectors, in payment of debts, duties, and taxes: thus disappointing and defeating the only expectation of productive revenue.

Under those circumstances (which I had the honor to communicate to the committee of ways and means) it becomes the duty of this department, to endeavour to remove the immediate pressure from the treasury; to endeavor to restore the public credit, and to endeavour to provide for the expences of the ensuing year. The only measures that occurred to my mind, for the accomplishment of such important objects, have been presented to the view of Congress. The act authorising the receipt of treasury notes in payment of subscriptions to a public loan, was passed, I fear, too late to answer the purpose for which it was designed. It promises, at this time, little relief, either as an instrument to raise money, or to absorb the claim for treasury notes, which are daily becoming due. From this cause, and from other obvious causes, the dividend on the funded debt has not been punctually paid; a large amount of treasury notes has already been dishonored; and the hopes of preventing further injury and reproach, in transacting the business of the treasury, is too visionary to afford a moment's consolation.

The actual condition of the treasury, thus described, will serve to indicate the state of the public credit. Public credit depends essentially upon public opinion. The useful test of public credit, is, indeed, the value of the public debt. The faculty of borrowing money is not a test of public credit; for a faithless government, like a desperate individual, has only to increase the premium, according to the exigency, in order to secure a loan. Thus, public opinion manifested in every form, and in every direction, hardly permits us at the present juncture, to speak of the existence of public credit! and yet, it is not impossible, that the government, in the resources of its patronage and its pledges, might find the means of tempting the rich, and the avaricious to supply its immediate wants.

But when the wants of to-day are supplied; what is the new expedient, that shall supply the wants of to-morrow? If it is now a charter of incorporation, it may then be a grant of land; but, after all the immeasureable tracts of the western wild, would be exhausted in successive efforts to obtain pecuniary aids, and still leave the government necessitous, unless the foundations of public credit were re-established and maintained! In the measures therefore, which it has been my duty to suggest, I have endeavored to introduce a permanent plan for reviving the public credit, of which the facility of borrowing money, in anticipation of settled and productive revenues is only an incident, altho' it is an incident as durable as the plan itself. The outline seemed to embrace whatever was requisite, to leave no doubt upon the power and the disposition of the government, in relation to its pecuniary engagements; to diminish, and not to augment, the amount of the public debt in the hands of individuals; and to create general confidence, rather by the manner of treating the claims of the present class of creditors, than by the manner of conciliating the favor of a new class.

With these explanatory remarks, sir, I proceed to answer, specially the questions you have proposed.

1st. I am opinion that a considerable issue of treasury notes, with the quality of being receivable in subscription to a national bank, will have an injurious effect upon the credit of the government; and, also upon the prospects of a loan for 1815.

Because, it will confer gratuitously an advantage upon a class of new creditors, over the present creditors of the government standing on a footing of, at least, equal merit.

Because it will excite general dissatisfaction among the present holders of the public debt; and general distrust among the capatalists who are accustomed to advance their money the government.

Because a quality of subscribing to the national bank, attached to treasury notes, exclusively will tend to depreciate the value of all public debt, not possessing that quality; and whatever depreciates the value of public debt, in this way must necessarily impair the public credit.

Because the specie capital of the citizens of the U. S. so far as it may be deemed applicable to investments in the public stocks, has already in a great measure been so vested; the holders of the present debt will be unable to become subscribers to the bank, if that object should, eventually, prove desirable, without selling their stock at a depreciated rate, in order to procure the whole amount of their subscriptions in treasury notes; and a general depression in the value of the public debt will inevitably ensue.

Because the very proposition of making a considerable issue of treasury notes, even with the quality of being subscribed to a national bank, can only be regarded as an experiment on which it seems dangerous to rely. The treasury notes must be purchased at par, with money; a new set of creditors are to be created; it may, or may not, be deemed an object of speculation by the money holders, to subscribe to the bank; the result of the experiment cannot be ascertained, until it will be too late to provide a remedy, in case of failure; while the credit of the government will be effected by every circumstance which keeps the efficacy of its fiscal operations in suspense or doubt.

Because the prospect of a loan for 1815, without the aid of a bank, is faint and unpromising; except perhaps, so far as the pledge of a specific tax may succeed; and then it must be recollected, that a considerable supply of money will be required for the prosecution of the war, beyond the whole amount of the taxes to be levied.

Because if the loan for the year 1815, be made to depend upon the issue of the treasury notes subscribable to the national bank, it will probably fail for the reasons which have been already suggested; and if the loan be independent of that operation a considerable issue of treasury notes, for the purpose of creating a bank capital must, it is believed deprive the government of every chance of raising money, in any other manner.

2d. I am of opinion that it will be extremely difficult, if not impracticable, to get 44 millions of treasury notes, (forming, with 6 millions of specie, the capital of a national bank) into circulation, with or without depreciation.

Because if the subscription to the bank becomes an object of speculation, the treasury notes will probably be purchased at the treasury, and at the loan office, and never pass into circulation at all.

Because whatever portion of the treasury notes might pass into circulation, would be speedily withdrawn by the speculators in the subscription to the bank, after arts had been employed to depreciate their value.

Because it is not believed, that in the present state of the public credit, 44 millions of treasury notes can be sent into circulation. The only difference between the treasury notes now issued and dishonored, and those proposed to be issued, consists in the subscribable quality; but reasons have been already assigned for an opinion that this difference does not afford such confidence in the experiment as seems requisite to justify a reliance upon it, for accomplishing some of the most interesting objects of the government.

I must beg you sir, to pardon the haste in which I have written these general answers to your enquiries. But knowing the importance of time, and feeling a desire to avoid every appearance of contributing to the loss of a moment, I have chosen rather to rest upon the intelligence and candour of the committe, than to enter upon a more labored investigation of the subject referred to me.

I have the honor to be, &c.

A. J. DALLAS.

[When the motion was made in the house to print the above letter, it was opposed by Mr. Fisk of N. Y. and lost. He said the committee to which the letter had been addressed, had concluded that it ought not to be printed. It conveyed truths relative to our treasury too humiliating and portentous to be made known to the publick, by which course they would necessarily reach the enemy. He had no doubt the letter would get to the publick, having been publicly read in the house, and being on the publick journal. The letter contained the truth, and nothing but the truth. Yet he hoped its publication would never receive the sanction of the house.]

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 10.

THE NATIONAL BANK BILL,

Has passed the Senate of the U. S. It will be read in the House of Representatives to day; and we hope its fate will be speedily decided, to relieve all important fiscal arrangements and pecuniary transactions from the suspense in which they are held during its pendency. We need not repeat, what we have so often said, that we hope it will become a law.

The office of Secretary of the Navy is yet vacant; and possibly may remain so until Congress determine on the proposition submitted to them by the late secretary of the navy, for the establishment of a Navy Board in aid of the head of the department. Meanwhile BENJAMIN HUMANS, Esq. chief clerk in the department, acts as secretary.

[Ibid.

The FLYING SQUADRON authorised by Congress, are in a state of active preparation and will unquestionably make a sensible impression on the commerce of the enemy during the winter months.—Five capital vessels, (among which is the Macedonian) we understand, have been purchased, by government within a few days past. And capt. PORTER is raising 400 men. and capt. PERRY 500, for the public service.

FROM PENSACOLA.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in the Mississippi Territory, to his friend in Rogersville, Ten. dated,

"St. Stephen's, Nov. 12.

"Dear Sir!

"After an absence of more than two months, I returned to this place a few hours since, from Pensacola. This important work, that has for a long time excited much interest, has at length been acted upon. Gen. Jackson has visited Pensacola. On Monday the 6th inst. the army having advanced within a few miles of the town, a flag was sent in summoning a surrender, which was met with the most welcome roar of 6 or 8 round of cannon, and compelled to retreat. As it was growing late in the evening, operations were postponed until morning, after reveille, "to arms" was beat, and in a few moments we triumphantly entered the town, under a brisk fire of grape and cannister from the town, and bombs and ball from the fort, and some British vessels that lay at anchor in the bay. The governor was soon made prisoner, and the town and fort surrounded; notwithstanding which, the officer commanding the fort continued to fire upon our forces until night, when he marched out. The British discovering we had gained possession of the town and fort, moved down to the Baranca, a strong Spanish battery that commands the entrance of the bay—dismounted the guns, and blew up the works, which placed it out of our power to maintain possession of the place. On the 10th we commenced our return march for fort Montgomery, a redoubt near the confluence of the Bigby and Alabama.

"Thus has ended the important work for which the people have so impatiently longed; and I regret very earnestly indeed, that it has eventuated so differently from our expectations. For whilst it remains as at present, the property and lives of the people of this section of the U. S. are insecure. We expect before spring to be powerfully invaded but hope to be able to keep the enemy out of our houses, altho' they may make a tremendous knocking at our doors."

By the Express, Captain Taylor, the editors of the New-York Gazette, have received Jamaica papers to the 29th of October. They state that a treaty of peace has been signed between Christophe and Petion, by which they mutually agree to surrender St. Domingo to the French government; and all the property, except that occupied by the General Officers, to be given up to their respective owners.

From the Boston Palladium, Dec. 6.

A small book has just been published by Cummings and Hilliard, which we think, is highly worthy perusal. It is entitled, "A few weeks in Paris, during the residence of the Allied Sovereigns in that Metropolis." The following extract gives an idea of the feeling of the French people towards their new monarch:

"In Germany, England, and in other countries, one would think, from what they publish in their newspapers, that the question is very often asked, if a revolution is yet commenced in France. But in France itself, no such apprehension is felt. Even if there are men who sometimes whisper threats against the government, among their particular friends, there is not yet that expression amongst the people, as if they were preparing or expected such an event. Nobody, I imagine, who has been in France, will say that the Bourbons are popular—but I believe the generality of the people are satisfied, that the French have reached, at length, that state of poverty and apathy, the consequenoe of so much change and misery, that a revolution in favor of any thing or any body, is almost impossible.

There was no revolution in favour of the Bourbons, and generally speaking, the only change in France or in the feelings of the French, is from war to peace. The revolution of the last century was made in the Province by men, who gain in all revolutions. They revolted, because all France belonged to a few rich proprietaries. At this moment, these men are rescued from their vassalage, and a large proportion of them have a share in the soil of France. They are therefore rejoiced, no doubt, to escape the depredations of further battles by accepting a king, whom they care little about, but whom it is their interest to defend, while he has the power to prevent foreign wars, or insurrections at home."

SAVANNAH, (Geo.) November 24.

Captain Isaacs, late commander of the brig Mary, of New-York, arrived in this place last evening from New-Providence via St. Mary's; came passenger in the Spanish schooner Felisha, which was taken possession of by an United States gun vessel off St. Mary's bar, and ordered in for that port for adjudication.

Captain Isaac states, that he left New Providence on the 13th instant, at which time 1200 black troops were ready to embark, and were only waiting for vessels which were hourly looked for, to transport them to Jamaica. Captain Isaacs left Jamaica for Providence on the 18th October, and informs that every vessel of an easy draft of water that could be procured at that place (Jamaica) was taken by government at 6 pounds per ton, to be fitted out as transports, supposed to be intended for an expedition against New-Orleans Troops were daily expected from all the windward islands to rendezvous at Jamaica; all the black regiments were to be consolidated on their arrival there; that on the 19th of October, on his passage to New-Providence, fell in off the east end of the island of Jamaica with 7 sail of transports full of troops bound in; that in Providence every arrangement was making for an expedition; and the general opinion was that it was intended for New-Orleans. The day on which Captain Isaacs left Providence, a Spanish brig, 15 days from Cadiz arrived, and reported that a few days before Abacco, was boarded by his majesty's ship Tonant, Admiral Cochrane; but could not learn where he was bound; after being detained half an hour, was permitted to proceed, when the Tonant stood for the southward under a heavy press of sail.

Grand State Lottery

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

THIS valuable Scheme, the profits of which is to be applied to the purpose of opening a communication between the Western and Atlantic portions of our state, by Canal, &c. cannot fail to interest every individual, who owns or expects to own, an acre of land therein. When a certain sum, by this Lottery shall have been raised, the Governor is empowered to subscribe, on the part of the Commonwealth, $ 150,000 Dollars to further the views of this undertaking. It therefore behooves each person, who has the welfare of our State at heart, to encourage the work; and whether the ticket he may purchase will be entitled to a prize or not, the object for which he subscribes is of more importance to him than the sum he may advance for the purchase of even 20 tickets. The subscriber has transmitted several schemes to be placed in the different Inns of Pittsburgh, to which they will be pleased to refer. It may be however necessary to mention, that the highest prize, (the last drawn number) is and that from the commencement of the drawing until the finishing, a stationary prize of $ 500, $ 1000, $ 2000 $ 5000 $ 10,000, and $ 20,000, with DAILY entitle the last drawn number, to one of these prizes.

It is needless, certainly, to remind our western friends, of the immense importance of a free and cheap communication from their district of Pennsylvania, to those of the sea-board: we export their produce. Let us, therefore, by a combined exertion, form a channel, through which their industry will receive a good market, and we, in a period of prosperity, turn it to advantage.

Letters, post paid, enclosing the notes of any western banks received in payment. Application to many of the most respectable characters of Pittsburgh will satisfy purchasers as to my correctness.

Tickets in the different Lotteries of the State can be obtained at my Office and those of Maryland; and MY BRETHREN are particularly requested to call upon me for the Masonic Hall of Baltimore. I have also, those of the Lancaster Church, African Church of this City, Wilkesbarre Meeting House, &c. and Massachusetts and New-York, for Sale. THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 20, 1814.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania met at Harrisburgh on the 6th inst. A quorum of both houses appeared on that day. The Senate immediately proceeded to choose a Speaker—Presley C. Lane had 11 votes; Isaac Weaver 11, and John Todd 2; neither of the candidates having a majority of the votes, the Senate then adjourned—the next day the same ballot was made. The Senate finding they could not agree on either of the first named gentlemen, elected John Todd Speaker, by an unanimous vote.

Jacob Holgate was unanimously elected Speaker of the House of Representatives.

A private of the 6th Regt. Maryland Militia, having been found guilty, by a Court Martial, of a violent assault on an officer with a loaded pistol, was condemned to be shot. On Saturday the 2d inst he was taken out under a strong guard, dressed in funeral habiliments, and preceded by a coffin to the camp near Baltimore. After going through all the awful forms attached to so melancholy a ceremony, just as the platoon was going to fire on him, the Commanding General was pleased to respite the execution for some days, until the will of the President of the United States should be known as to the final fate of the criminal.

Accounts from St. Louis, as late as Nov. 19, state, that between 3 and 400 rangers and volunteers were on their way to intercept the Indians who menace the upper Missouri settlements.—It is also said, that traders from Canada had arrived at several points on the Mississippi and its tributary streams, with large supplies of cloathing and ammunition, for the different tribes.

According to returns made at the Adjutant and Inspector General's Office at Washington, it appears, that 13898 men were enlisted for the United States army, between the 1st of February, 1814, and the 1st of October; and $ 1,944,828 98 have been disbursed from the Paymaster General's Office on account of bounties and premiums for such recruits, between the 27th of January and 24th of September, 1814.

Lieut. Senat, of the Navy, was killed in a duel with Lieut. M'Donald, also of the Navy, at Erie, the beginning of this month.

The celebrated Baron Munchausen, who has amused the world like many other travellers, with the history of his strange and wonderful adventures, and who can hardly be said to have outraged credulity more than his competitors have done, has at last paid the great debt of nature. It is reported of this man, that in the decline of his life, he fully believed in the reality of the stories recorded in his page. Thus a series of events, originally designed by their author as a satire on the strange and incredulous, is so far as concerns himself, reduced to a certainty, and answering all the purposes of fact. How striking a proof does this afford of the infirmity of the human intellect.

EXTRAORDINARY VOYAGE.

The Russian ship General Suwarrow now at Portsmouth, is about to proceed, on a most extraordinary voyage, being for other than the completion of 2 military and commercial establishments on the west coast of North America. The Russian government have, for 10 years past, had a fort, with a few pieces of ordnance mounted on the island of Rodiak, in 55, N. long. 162 W. being the nearest point of the American continent to their establishment at Kamschatka. Within these 4 years they have begun to form another establishment on the neck of land called California, and this ship takes out ordnance and stores of every description, to give it an appearance of military strength. The trade the Russians carry on thither, is wholly in furs, for which articles they find a lucrative market in China, from whence they bring to Europe the produce and manufactures of that country, and are enabled from their connexion to each other, to afford it to the European continent at a cheaper rate, than in this country. The General Suwarrow will also endeavor to discover a passage thro' Berings Straits, and in a north westerly direction, to Archangle. A gentleman on board declares, that on a former voyage, he was more than half thro' the northern seas of cape North, to Archangel, when the ship was stopped by the ice—this adventure left only about 500 miles unexplored, to complete the circuit of the world.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17.

It is rumoured, and generally believed, that the President yesterday made the following nominations to the Senate:

BENJAMIN W. CROWNINSHIELD, of Massachusetts, to be Secretary of the Navy of the United States.

WILLIAM EUSTIS, (late Secretary of War) to be our Minister to Holland.

Brigadier General GAINES has given notice in a General Order, of his relinquishing the command of the Philadelphia District, in consequence of orders he has received to repair to Louisiana.

Extract of a letter from near Tappahannock, Virg. dated 13th Dec. 1814.

"The enemy have at last left us, after burning a part of Tappahannock. They then landed, and marched to Farnham church, 7 miles from the river—burnt the post office, and took away many Negroes, and returned unmolested to their shipping; after defeating our force, took from us one gun, wounded and took prisoner capt. Shackleford of the artillery, whom they paroled. He is doing well tho' the ball is not extracted. Capt. Barrie, of the Dragon, 74, and col. Malcolm, of the marines, commanded this brilliant expedition, as they will no doubt call it. Thirteen prisoners and deserters of the enemy, captain Lomax has taken on to Washington."

From the N. Y. Gazette, Dec. 6.

The officers of the U. L. flotilla, on lake Champlain, have addressed a complimentary letter to com. MACDONOUGH, under date of the 11th ult. in which they say, "It gives us great sensibility to learn, that you are called from a station, where your indefatigable exertions and bravery have added a new and distinguished lustre to the naval glory of our country." ORPHAN'S COURT.

WHEREAS William M'Coy, Alexander M'Coy, Elizabeth M'Coy, and Mary Schoolers, late Mary M'Coy, presented their petition, stating, that their father James M'Coy, lately died intestate, leaving a widow, Rachel, and issue eight children, to wit: William M'Coy, John, James, Alexander, Hugh, Isaac, Elizabeth, and Mary, since intermarried with William Schoolers, of whom Hugh and Isaac are still in their minority: and that the said intestate died seized in his demesne as of fee, of and in a certain messuage situate in the township of Fayette, in the county of Allegheny, adjoining lands of John M'Adow, Wm. Turner, and John Short, containing about one hundred and fifteen acres and forty five perches, with the allowance of six per cent for roads, with the appurtenances, and praying the Court to award an inquest to view the said premises, and make partition thereof, to and among the heirs and representatives of the said James M'Coy, deceased, if the same can be so parted and divided without prejudice to, or spoiling the whole: and if the same cannot be so parted and divided, without prejudice to, or spoiling the whole, then to value and appraise the same, and to make return thereof according to law. April 8, 1814, petition was read, and inquest awarded. May 13, 1814, writ of partition or valuation issued returnable to August term 1814, and executed, and property valued at $ 11 75 per acre, making in the whole $ 1268 02. November 17, 1814, on motion, rule that the said heirs of James M'Coy, deceased, shew cause at the next term, why the eldest should not take the said property at the valuation, and that notice be served on those in the county of Allegheny, or their guardians, and that public notice be published in the Gazette for four successive weeks.

I do certify the above to be a true transcript from the record. In testimony whereof, (L. S.) I have hereto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court, at Pittsburgh, this fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

The premises consist of upwards of 700 acres of first rate land, which runs above a mile on the river bank, and 500 acres river and creek bottom, 200 acres cleared and under good fence, and 30 acres laid down in clover last season, a new Grist Mill and Saw Mill in complete operation, a new still house, the stuff taken out for another Saw mill, and part of the dam made, and joining this new Saw Mill can be erected a merchant flour-mill or furnace. It is said by good judges there is a great quantity of iron ore on the tract; there are also two apple orchards in full bearing, six large sugar camps, and the mills and timber on the estate will make more than fifty thousand dollars. For goodness of soil, and beauty of situation, none in the U. States can surpass. It is fit for the first man in Europe or America to reside on. If required, a great part of the purchase money may remain unpaid for three years. An indisputable title will be given. For further particulars apply to Mr. THOMAS CROMWELL, or to the subscriber on the premises.

GENUINE FAMILY MEDICIES.

BOSLER & Co.

Front Street, between Market & Wood Streets, PITTSBURGH,

HAVE just received from Lee's Patent and Family Medicine Store, New York, a fresh supply of the following

GENUINE MEDICINES.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers is recommended

HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

The operation of these Pills is very mild, so as to be used by persons in all situations, and of every age.

They are well adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions, to restore the appetite, to produce a free perspiration, and thus prevent Colds, which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a Cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness, sickness at the stomach, and severe head-ache, and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S

WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES,

Which have, within years past, cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from Worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This Medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age & constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or an infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul, and and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The Lozenges are efficacious in taking off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish complaints, and the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a disorder which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is also the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a vast number when in advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance and a mild taste.

HAMILTON'S ESSENCE & EXTRACT OF MUSTARD,

A safe & effectual remedy for rheumatisms, gout, palsey, sprains and bruises, white swellings, old scrains and relaxations, numbness and weakness of the neck, pains of the side, head ache, swelled faces, frozen limbs and every similar complaint. It prevents chilblains or chopped hands, and the ill effects of getting the feet wet.

THE DAMASK LIP SALVE.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER FOR THE TEETH AND GUMS.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and the foulness, which if suffered to accumulate never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

HAMILTON'S

GRAND RESTORATIVE,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavorable to the constitution the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication and destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR,

Celebrated for the cure of colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, and approaching consumptions, and a certain remedy for the whooping cough.

HAHN'S GENUINE EYE WATER.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

TOOTH ACHE DROPS.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

LEE'S OINTMENT FOR THE ITCH.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

LEE'S INFALLIBLE

AGUE AND FEVER DROPS.

DOCTOR HANDY'S,

WORM DESTROYING

LOZENGES,

A safe and efficacious Medicine for destroying and bringing away

WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary. The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelmin thick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable Medicine has often been known to remove half a pot-full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the reader's time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times, the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head-ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic, or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above, and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above valuable Medicine is sold only by

J. P. & J. W. SKELTON,

at their wholesale and retail Drug Store, at the corner of Wood and Third Streets, Pittsburgh.

Doctor CHISHOLMS,

Anti-Bilious Pills,

OF A QUALITY

Superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a

GENERAL MEDICINE,

IN THIS COUNTRY,

NOW prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates.

This extraordinary medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuant of bile, is without example; never producing debility, or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child, or weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excrutiating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains, wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flax-seed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and diseases of the liver, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills, taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case, the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by

J. P. & J. W. Skelton,

At their Wholesale and Retail Apothecary and Drug Store.
